HISTORY OF ARCADIA ACADEMY

Originally established in 1846, the Arcadia Academy campus has functioned as a High School, Civil War infirmary, College, Boarding School, Daycare, and now the businesses you see today. After the Civil War, the Academy was in a terrible state of despair and was sold to the Ursuline Catholic Sisters in 1877 who spent the next 100 years carving the beautiful campus from the countryside.

The last graduating class from the Ursuline Arcadia Academy College was in 1971, after which the buildings continued as a boarding school and daycare until becoming family-owned and operated since the 1990's.

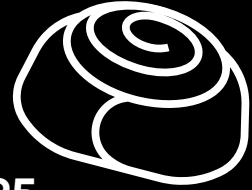

In 2023, the Buechner, Battaglia, and Christodora Family purchased the Academy from the Oyler/Rouse Family. Together, they accepted the daunting task of continuing the Academy's restoration to former beauty and preserving its history.
